Join Silver Bullet Productions for an evening of engaging conversation with Actor Wes Studi and Author Michael McGarrity, facilitated by Writer/Producer, Kirk Ellis.

Three talented New Mexicans, recognized for their gifts worldwide, have created complex and unforgettable characters in their films and books. Both Wes and Michael are recipients of the prestigious New Mexico Governor's Award for Excellence in the Arts.

Wes Studi is a musician, sculptor, activist – and actor in over 50 film and television productions including such unforgettable roles in: Dances with Wolves, Heat, Geronimo, The Last of the Mohicans, and Avatar, as well as the acclaimed The Only Good Indian.

Michael McGarrity is the creator of the Kevin Kerney mysteries set in New Mexico, including Tularosa, Under Color of Law, Dead or Alive, Everyone Dies, and Judas Judge. Due out June, 2012, Michael's next book, Hard County, is an historical saga set in New Mexico. A prequel to his Kevin Kerney mystery series, it is the first volume of a trilogy spanning a hundred years and four generations of a ranching family on the Tularosa Basin.

Writer/Producer Kirk Ellis won the coveted Humanitas Prize for his screenplay of John Adams, the HBO miniseries, which won a record breaking 13 Emmy Awards and 4 Golden Globes. Upcoming projects include the film biography of the Marquis de Lafayette, and, for HBO, Ellis has adapted David McCullough's 1776.
